

just TAKE
A LESSON

THE CROWN

S04E04

VOCABULARY
QUESTION TAGS
MODAL VERBS
PHRASAL VERBS
IDIOMS

VOCABULARY

CHECK IF YOU KNOW THESE WORDS
AND PUT THEM IN THE CORRECT FORM.

couch	governor	compete
miss	allow	colleague
village	flag	twin

01:57

I can't go faster than Parliament or the people will me.

02:13

Over the years, this room has been part-office, part-drawing room, part-confessional, and part-psychologist's

03:10

- You've two children, yes?
- Yes, Mark and Carol.

03:27

The kind of son any mother would dream of having... has gone

03:35

He has been in the Paris-Dakar car rally. He and his teammates had driven through France [...]

04:13

The last sighting was at a checkpoint in a in Algeria two days ago.

08:54

You and your must leave immediately and remove the Argentine

09:50

We have to report this to the of the Falkland Islands.

VOCABULARY

CHECK IF YOU KNOW THESE WORDS
AND PUT THEM IN THE CORRECT FORM.

approximately	order	interest
actress	arrange	traffic
lovely	heatstroke	court

10:08

I'd like you to for me to see my four children.

12:52

Yes, well, it's not my fault there's 17:41

The bad news is, that still leaves us with a search area of 130,000 square miles.

29:11

Driver didn't seem happy when she was rushed to hospital with 34:03

- Although this latest one is quite something.
- Oh, yes, the young, racy American 45:52

Is that going to be a tennis? Doesn't look particularly organic either.

45:53

- Sorry. No, it's
- I'm glad you like it.

47:15

But she shows no, just talks endlessly about missing London.

50:40

- Is that a question or an?
- More of a cry for help, I think.

VOCABULARY

CHECK IF YOU KNOW THESE WORDS
AND PUT THEM IN THE CORRECT FORM.

inflation	territory	equivocation
cut	power	decline
breathtaking	rioting	knob

01:10

Prime Minister, when you came to power, you told me you hated seeing Britain in 01:16

We have at 12%, unemployment of three million, and and civil unrest in several major cities.

01:26

But there isn't a magical system whereby you can just push a few buttons and twiddle a few and everything will be alright.

01:48

But to do that, we first need to get the inflation rate down, and that means to public spending.

04:40

The way she said it was, without or thought.

05:13

- It's true! I really don't know.
- Your lack of self-knowledge sometimes is 08:46

This is British overseas, and you have landed illegally.

VOCABULARY

CHECK IF YOU KNOW THESE WORDS
AND PUT THEM IN THE CORRECT FORM.

briefing	illegally	expense
imperiousness	evict	unaware
vengeful	intolerable	entitlement

08:46

This is British overseas territory, and you have landed

10:21

Important, I think, though, that each is that the others have been summoned too.

10:41

Martin, perhaps a short document ahead of each meeting, focusing on each child's hobbies, interests, and so forth.

11:52

[...] to be sent from Port Stanley to the island of South Georgia to a group of Argentine scrap metal workers.

13:02

There's a nasty, officious and sense of to these people.

13:33

It's rather a lot of money for someone still at school. Most of it goes on secretarial anyway.

30:00

- You have to admit, it's
- It's mothers and sons. That's all it is.

52:20

I disagree. He seems entirely lost, and bullied, and

GRAMMAR

MAKE QUESTION TAGS:

03:48

- You don't know where we are, do you?
- Yes, I do. I know exactly.

05:43

It's hard for them to get past that maternal instinct,?

13:15

I got a terrible fright when I heard you wanted lunch à deux. This isn't bad news,?

16:32

It's true though,? Same with the Marines [...]

20:49

He's looking very well,? I'll say hello.

29:39

It was their job,?

35:55

This salmon is delicious,?

GRAMMAR

FILL IN WITH: CAN / COULD / MIGHT

01:26

But there isn't a magical system whereby you just push a few buttons and twiddle a few knobs.

01:54

I would like to be very much tougher, but I [not] go faster than Parliament or the people will allow me.

15:00

I mean, I have been bullied a bit as normal Eddie Windsor

24:46

I used to relish scaring people a bit because I control it.

28:30

Yes, I see that, Mummy, but, honestly, where's the gravy?

29:30

I just thought he have shown a bit more gratitude to the rescue team.

30:50

The fear is the military junta consider an attack on the Falklands.

GRAMMAR

FILL IN WITH: MAY / MIGHT / SHALL

35:15

It come as a shock to you to know that I care.

41:55

Thank you, dear. I?

43:15

Oh, all right. What I think of?

44:15

- we start outside?
- Yes, all right. Thank you.

44:20

It look like a lot, but we're effectively starting from scratch.

51:25

I was hoping we talk.

PHRASAL VERBS IDIOMS

MATCH THE EXPRESSIONS WITH THE MEANINGS:

1. find out

2. a cry for help

3. make up

4. end up

5. turn out

A. to reach a particular place or achieve a situation after other activities / okazać się

B. a way of saying that you need help / wołanie o pomoc

C. to be known or discovered finally and surprisingly / okazać się

D. to obtain knowledge of something, or to obtain knowledge of someone's activities, esp. dishonest ones / dowiedzieć się

E. to forgive someone and be friendly with them again after an argument or disagreement / pogodzić się; wynagrodzić

NOW CHECK THE MEANING IN THE SENTENCES:

Philip: Have you reached a conclusion after all those little confidential lunches, one-by-one?

Elizabeth: Oh, you found out?

Philip: Mm.

Margaret: We got the message. SOS. 999. We dropped everything. Queen Mother: What's the matter, darling?

Elizabeth: Drink.

Margaret: Is that a question or an order?

Elizabeth: More of a cry for help, I think.

Elizabeth: It was me that wanted Andrew and Edward. You didn't want any more. I wanted two more to prove to myself that I had it in me... and to make up for my failings. Especially with Charles.

Thatcher: How will it be well if we do nothing? How will it possibly end up well if we do nothing?

Edward: They put superglue on my chair. Gave me a bottle of white wine as a gift, which turned out to be...

Elizabeth: What?

Edward: Urine.

PHRASAL VERBS IDIOMS

MATCH THE EXPRESSIONS WITH THE MEANINGS:

1. break down
 2. show somebody out
 3. send somebody down
 4. tell somebody off
 5. work out
-
- A. to speak angrily to someone because they have done something wrong / ochrzanić; zbesztać
 - B. to be unable to control your feelings and start to cry / załamać się
 - C. to go to the door of the building with someone who does not live or work there, when they are leaving / odprowadzić kogoś
 - D. to be the result of a calculation / kalkulować
 - E. to ask someone to leave a college or university before the end of the course because they have done something wrong / odesłać kogoś; wyrzucić

NOW CHECK THE MEANING IN THE SENTENCES:

Thacher: The very idea that the first time a prime minister should break down in this room and it be a woman.

Elizabeth: It is by no means the first time a prime minister has broken down in here.

Denis: Be gone.

Man: I'll take it to the foreign secretary.

Denis: I'll show you out. You just need to give her some time.

Edward: Discipline is important, and I have discovered a taste for enforcing it. I even had someone sent down last term.

Elizabeth: Sent down where?

Edward: Home. For smoking.

Mark: Anyway, no sooner are we found than Dad tells me off!

Thatcher: What? Why did you do that?

Denis: I just thought he could have shown a bit more gratitude to the rescue team.

Philip: Still, the prime minister will be relieved to be reunited with her favorite child. Have you worked out who yours is yet?

just TAKE
A LESSON

THE CROWN ANSWERS

S04E04

VOCABULARY
QUESTION TAGS
MODAL VERBS
PHRASAL VERBS
IDIOMS

VOCABULARY

CHECK IF YOU KNOW THESE WORDS
AND PUT THEM IN THE CORRECT FORM.

couch	governor	compete
miss	allow	colleague
village	flag	twin

01:57

I can't go faster than Parliament or the people will allow me.

02:13

Over the years, this room has been part-office, part-drawing room, part-confessional, and part-psychologist's couch.

03:10

- You've two children, yes?
- Yes, twins. Mark and Carol.

03:27

The kind of son any mother would dream of having... has gone missing.

03:35

He has been competing in the Paris-Dakar car rally. He and his teammates had driven through France [...]

04:13

The last sighting was at a checkpoint in a village in Algeria two days ago.

08:54

You and your colleagues must leave immediately and remove the Argentine flag.

09:50

We have to report this to the governor of the Falkland Islands.

VOCABULARY

CHECK IF YOU KNOW THESE WORDS
AND PUT THEM IN THE CORRECT FORM.

approximately	order	interest
actress	arrange	traffic
lovely	heatstroke	court

10:08

I'd like you to arrange for me to see my four children.

12:52

Yes, well, it's not my fault there's traffic.

17:41

The bad news is, that still leaves us with a search area of approximately 130,000 square miles.

29:11

Driver didn't seem happy when she was rushed to hospital with heatstroke.

34:03

- Although this latest one is quite something.
- Oh, yes, the young, racy American actress.

45:52

Is that going to be a tennis court? Doesn't look particularly organic either.

45:53

- Sorry. No, it's lovely.
- I'm glad you like it.

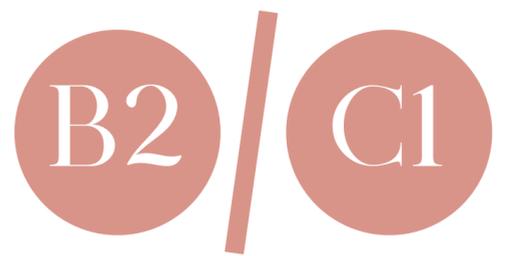

47:15

But she shows no interest, just talks endlessly about missing London.

50:40

- Is that a question or an order?
- More of a cry for help, I think.

VOCABULARY

CHECK IF YOU KNOW THESE WORDS
AND PUT THEM IN THE CORRECT FORM.

inflation	territory	equivocation
cut	power	decline
breathtaking	rioting	knob

01:10

Prime Minister, when you came to power, you told me you hated seeing Britain in decline.

01:16

We have inflation at 12%, unemployment of three million, and rioting and civil unrest in several major cities.

01:26

But there isn't a magical system whereby you can just push a few buttons and twiddle a few knobs and everything will be alright.

01:48

But to do that, we first need to get the inflation rate down, and that means to cut public spending.

04:40

The way she said it was, without equivocation or thought.

05:13

- It's true! I really don't know.
- Your lack of self-knowledge sometimes is breathtaking.

08:46

This is British overseas territory, and you have landed illegally.

VOCABULARY

CHECK IF YOU KNOW THESE WORDS
AND PUT THEM IN THE CORRECT FORM.

briefing	illegally	expense
imperiousness	evict	unaware
vengeful	intolerable	entitlement

08:46

This is British overseas territory, and you have landed illegally.

10:21

Important, I think, though, that each is unaware that the others have been summoned too.

10:41

Martin, perhaps a short briefing document ahead of each meeting, focusing on each child's hobbies, interests, and so forth.

11:52

[...] to be sent from Port Stanley to the island of South Georgia to evict a group of Argentine scrap metal workers.

13:02

There's a nasty, officious imperiousness and sense of entitlement to these people.

13:33

It's rather a lot of money for someone still at school. Most of it goes on secretarial expenses anyway.

30:00

- You have to admit, it's intolerable.
- It's mothers and sons. That's all it is.

52:20

I disagree. He seems entirely lost, and bullied, and vengeful.

GRAMMAR

MAKE QUESTION TAGS:

03:48

- You don't know where we are, do you?
- Yes, I do. I know exactly.

05:43

It's hard for them to get past that maternal instinct, isn't it?

13:15

I got a terrible fright when I heard you wanted lunch à deux. This isn't bad news, is it?

16:32

It's true though, isn't it? Same with the Marines [...]

20:49

He's looking very well, isn't he? I'll say hello.

29:39

It was their job, wasn't it?

35:55

This salmon is delicious, isn't it?

GRAMMAR

FILL IN WITH: CAN / COULD / MIGHT

01:26

But there isn't a magical system whereby you can just push a few buttons and twiddle a few knobs.

01:54

I would like to be very much tougher, but I can't go faster than Parliament or the people will allow me.

15:00

I mean, I might have been bullied a bit as normal Eddie Windsor

24:46

I used to relish scaring people a bit because I could control it.

28:30

Yes, I can see that, Mummy, but, honestly, where's the gravy?

29:30

I just thought he could have shown a bit more gratitude to the rescue team.

30:50

The fear is the military junta might consider an attack on the Falklands.

GRAMMAR

FILL IN WITH: MAY / MIGHT / SHALL

35:15

It might come as a shock to you to know that I care.

41:55

Thank you, dear. May I?

43:15

Oh, all right. What shall I think of?

44:15

- Shall we start outside?
- Yes, all right. Thank you.

44:20

It might look like a lot, but we're effectively starting from scratch.

51:25

I was hoping we might talk.

PHRASAL VERBS IDIOMS

MATCH THE EXPRESSIONS WITH THE MEANINGS:

1. find out - to obtain knowledge of something, or to obtain knowledge of someone's activities, esp. dishonest ones
2. a cry for help - a way of saying that you need help
3. make up - to forgive someone and be friendly with them again after an argument or disagreement
4. end up - to reach a particular place or achieve a situation after other activities
5. turn out - to be known or discovered finally and surprisingly

PHRASAL VERBS IDIOMS

MATCH THE EXPRESSIONS WITH THE MEANINGS:

1. break down - to be unable to control your feelings and start to cry
2. show somebody out - to go to the door of the building with someone who does not live or work there, when they are leaving
3. send somebody down - to ask someone to leave a college or university before the end of the course because they have done something wrong
4. tell somebody off - to speak angrily to someone because they have done something wrong
5. work out - to be the result of a calculation

