Hi Guys!

*I'd like to tell you a few words about me.
Ready?*

Let's do it!

NOT EVERYTHING IS TRUTH.

Please focus on the tenses!

Present Simple and Present Continuous

RIGHT OR WRONG?

It's your choice!

This year I in Warsaw.

First of all, I would like to tell you that I live in Skierniewice.

However..

A. live

B. am living

Wszystko, co jest tymczasowe w naszym życiu wyrażamy w czasie Present Continuous.

Dlatego poprawna odpowiedź to B. Present Simple używamy dla stałych czynności.

(I live in Skierniewice)

I moved to Warsaw for one reason.

A. don't want

B. 'm not wanting

Niektórych czasowników nie możemy używać w czasie Present Continuous, a tak naprawdę w żadnej formie -ing.

Dlatego poprawna odpowiedź to A.

Oczywiście mówimy o języku potocznym. Jeśli interesują Was wyjątki, tu je znajdziecie:

<https://dictionary.cambridge.org/grammar/british-grammar/want>

I to commute to my work any more.

Why so naughty today?

Fluffy, you are such a good girl.

A. are you

B. are you being

Podobnie, jak „to want”, czasownik „to be” nie lubi formy -ing.

Jednak jeśli mówimy o czyimś zachowaniu w danej chwili, to jak najbardziej forma „being” jest ok.

Dlatego poprawna odpowiedź to B. Więcej tu:

<https://dictionary.cambridge.org/grammar/british-grammar/be>

I myself now when
I can talk about this.

As you already know, I love travelling

A. 'm enjoying

B. enjoy

Mamy tu przykład tymczasowej czynności, dodatkowo użyte jest „now”.

Dlatego poprawna odpowiedź to A.

Więcej tu:

<https://dictionary.cambridge.org/grammar/british-grammar/enjoy>

A. are always asking

B. always ask

Jeśli jakieś powtarzające się czynności są problematyczne lub irytujące używamy formy ciągłej. Standardowo oczywiście przy zdaniach z always mamy Present Simple.

Dlatego poprawna odpowiedź to A. Więcej tu:

<https://dictionary.cambridge.org/grammar/british-grammar/always?q=Always+with+continuous+verb+forms>

You me how to get motivated.

I a few people
who could help you.

A. 'm knowing

B. know

Tak, jak w przypadku „to want”, „to know” nie lubi formy -ing. No bo, jak już się wie to się wie :-)

Dlatego poprawna odpowiedź to B

Więcej tu:

<https://dictionary.cambridge.org/grammar/british-grammar/know>

A. 'm not believing

B. don't believe

Identyczna sytuacja, jak powyżej.

Albo wierzysz, albo nie. Nie możesz wierzyć „tymczasowo”

Dlatego poprawna odpowiedź to B.

*I in destiny
any more.*

Tonight I my favourite tv series.
It at 8 o'clock in the evening.

A. 'm watching / starts

B. watch / is starting

Pierwsze zdanie mówi o naszych planach na przyszłość. Tu używamy Present Continuous.

<https://dictionary.cambridge.org/grammar/british-grammar/future-present-continuous-to-talk-about-the-future-i-m-working-tomorrow?q=Future%3A+present+continuous+to+talk+about+the+future+%28I%E2%80%99m+working+tomorrow%29>

Natomiast jeśli mówimy o rozkładach jazdy, programie TV, wtedy stosujemy Present Simple. Poprawna odpowiedź to: A

<https://dictionary.cambridge.org/grammar/british-grammar/future-present-simple-to-talk-about-the-future-i-work-tomorrow?q=present+future>

Dlatego poprawna odpowiedź to A.

I OF ORGANIZING SOME LIVE.

A. 'm thinking

B. think

„To think” w przypadku, kiedy znaczy, że podejmuję decyzję, coś rozważamy, możemy użyć w Present Continuous.

Więcej tu:

<https://dictionary.cambridge.org/grammar/british-grammar/think>

Dlatego poprawna odpowiedź to A.

What..... these lessons?
..... them?

A. are you thinking of / Do you like
B. do you think of / Do you like

„To think” znaczące wyrażanie opinii, lub tak jak tu pytamy o opinię, nie możemy użyć w Present Continuous. Zawsze w Present Simple.

Więcej tu:

<https://dictionary.cambridge.org/grammar/british-grammar/think>

Jak lubimy coś, to na stałe (przynajmniej wg Anglików), więc „to like” zawsze w Present Simple. Poprawna odpowiedź to B. Więcej tu:

<https://dictionary.cambridge.org/grammar/british-grammar/like?q=Like+as+a+verb+meaning+%E2%80%9998enjoy%E2%80%999>
